

Making Money Between Books--Introduction

By Robin Bayne

Hi everyone--I'm looking forward to this workshop. I know many of you write outside the inspie-romance genre. Let's talk about our writing-- other than romance novels. Doesn't matter if you are between book sales or waiting for that first sale!

This workshop has 3 sections:

- 1) Re-using Research for $$
- 2) Selling, and Building your resume, with anthologies and on-line
- 3) More Ways to make $$ Writing

Let's start with a quick survey before the first lesson-- Would each of you please tell me the topic you last researched for a novel or article? When you respond, please state if you have used that same information for another purpose.
